Sunev, this mysterious spaceman came to us from Venus. He is visiting for a year at the Montpelier High School. You are probably wondering just how Sunev arrived...the way we understand it, his destination was the planet, Otlip; but Gravity caught his orbit-plane, Sunaru II, and caused a crash landing. We hope that everyone will enjoy this friendly, happy-go-lucky fellow as he accompanies us through the school year. And away we all go with Sunev.....

September is the month that schools begin
 Summer's fun and joys come to an end
 We face our task with an unwary smile
 But we take the journey mile by mile
 This is the first mile of our trip
 We hope no one will fall or slip.

Bucky, marching proudly, is our new drum major. He displayed his talents by marching at the Bluffton Street Fair.

Ronnie celebrated the bands good fortune at the Bluffton Street Fair.

October, first month of fall,
Filled with study, and report cards for all
Baseball arrived on the scene
While the Senior Play was a scream.

The annual drive started with a bang on October 16. The Senior Class sold 450 annuals at the end of the drive. Pictured at the right is the business staff: Howard Williams, Judy Enochs, and Dean Garrett.

Shown at the right is Mr. Gilbert Dehene, a traveling science teacher, from Michigan State. He was with us from October 26-30 giving demonstrations in science classes and to the whole student body.

A bad picture? No--it was taken by Jim Morris on his television. Shown is Bucky Buckmaster announcing the Montpelier Band Tag Day on Club 21, channel 21.

With hill billy costumes, the usherettes carried out the theme of the Senior Play.

The shop boys worked hard to get their class projects completed before Christmas. Bob Bothast is shown here planing off part of a night stand.

The senior secretarial studies girls were hard at work operating the various machines. Here we have Mary Ann Johnson battling the keyboard while using the dictaphone.

"Ooh! That is sure good," says Rosemary Roberts as she takes a drink from the new water fountain donated to the school by the Montpelier P.T.A. Organization.

Time for refreshments as the seniors display their Senior Cord skirts and trousers. The seniors are very proud and thrilled over the cords as they represent all the fun and memories of their high school years.

December is a month of rush
 And the Pacers made Hartford blush
 The Seniors received their jackets, blue and gold
 The smiles they wore, pride and pleasure showed
 With Christmas on the 25th
 Came good tidings and nice gifts.

Basketball being at the height of the season, brings the cheering block to their feet as Steve Schwarzkopf put another basket through the hoop.

Keeping with the Christmas spirit we find three Y-Teen members, Mary Ann Johnson, Sue Armstrong, and Joyce Zehner putting the finishing touch on the tree, which went along with the hanging of the greens, a project of the Y-Teen Club.

December 7, was a thrilling day for the seniors as they received their pictures. Shown are Sherry Taylor and Paul Yates displaying their pictures.

One of the noon activities was dancing on the gym floor. This was the first year to have dancing at noon and it has proven to be a lot of fun for everyone.

January enters the fifth mile of our trip,
 The winter weather at our faces does nip,
 Our Basketball team gets into full swing,
 We hope to emerge this season as the King.
 As this month ends we sigh with relief,
 For this month was anything but brief.

January 5 was a big night to the Junior Band Twirlers. They twirled for the first time that night with the Senior Band Twirlers.

Never give up! There is always a next time. The skating rink was flooded for the first time on January 4.

When all the students went home for Christmas vacation, the janitors stayed to scrub and polish so the school would look nice for a few minutes when we came back.

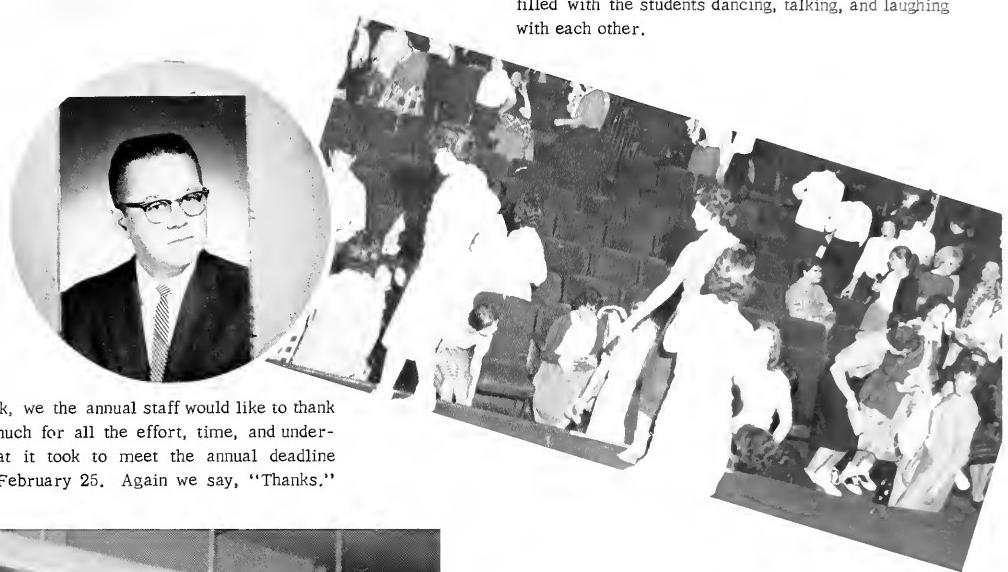

Everyone studied hard for the semester exams in mid January.

February, the shortest month of the year
Brought Valentines Day, the Sectional, and much cheer
The weather was undecided and so were we
About our future that we couldn't see.

"Dig that jazz!" A typical noon hour in the auditorium filled with the students dancing, talking, and laughing with each other.

Mr. Coppock, we the annual staff would like to thank you very much for all the effort, time, and understanding that it took to meet the annual deadline which was February 25. Again we say, "Thanks."

"Well, we finally made it," says Betty Burchard and Dean Garrett as they receive their band sweaters from Mr. Lewis. By earning over 500 merits during their last two years of band, they were recognized as the top members.

As the second team cheerleaders put their uniforms away in moth balls for another season; the varsity cheerleaders are giving a sad farewell to their uniforms. The cheerleaders have done an excellent job and we are very proud of them.

March brought our grade cards once more
Some frowned for theirs were very poor
We roamed the halls decked in green,
For St. Patrick Day was here a-ge'in.

Not only in March but in every other month of the year, we are very pleased to have Mr. Noel Lewis teaching remedial reading to the grade school students. She has taught in Fort Wayne, Hartford City, and the Montpelier Kindergarten. She has a weakness for Italian foods; her interests are sewing, cooking, and her daughter, Lynn.

(Above) "Ah-oh!," that spring FEVER has really gotten several of the students down. Agree with us, Shirley and David Thomas, Don Weaver, Bill Ledbetter, and Mike Shadie,

"Um, that's delicious" said Gaylen Walker and Philip Stoltz as they were being served by two F.H.A. members, Linda Merchant and Judy Love. The F.F.A. enjoyed a supper given by the F.H.A. members.

April brings us Spring vacation
 New Easter outfits for the occasion,
 The Junior Class Play brought hilarious laughs
 To add memories to the Senior's past.

While Mr. Hays flips the coin, the track team anxiously awaits the starting moment.

This committee of Juniors, composed of Marvin Heiny, Kay White, Jim Morris, Pam Owens, and Doris Kendall, picked the Junior Class Play and are shown talking over the play's success.

ABOVE: One of Mr. Lewis's favorite sayings as the Senior Band practiced for the Spring festival was "All right you guys, don't bug me."

Up and over! Bill Elliott exhibits his skill pole volting at one of M. H. S.'s track meets.

A SENIOR FAREWELL

Go don your capes,
and cold black caps,
and dry that stubborn tear,
for today's the day
you've waited for
All Year!

You made the boast,
you would be glad,
when no longer you would pass through those staunch unfeeling walls,
That day has come
At Last!

And oh! The words,
you vowed you'd tell
to that horrid bunch of teachers,
the minute that the day was done,
You'd do better than
A Preacher!

But what has happened?
You're not quite sure,
Because you feel so meager,
and you wish for one day more
to do just a bit
Of Figuring!

You may only want,
To set your locker right,
If you left it in a mess,
Or take another look,
That row second
Empty Desk!

With casual steps,
You take another stroll
Along those hallowed halls,
Then you assume a lofty air,
Just to appear above
It All!

But down inside,
You feel a little sick,
And you know time has passed,
As it dawns on you,
This very day will be
Your Last!

No more to just slip in,
As you hear a buzzing ring!
of that morning tardy bell,
Or see the familiar faces
That you've learned to love
So Well!

Oh! Yes, you'll probably see them
At church or on the street,
But it won't be quite the same
Because you won't be playing that same old kind
Of Game!

But while you all were gathered,
(Sometimes with complaining cries)
Within those hallowed walls,
You sought a common purpose
Which was for the good
Of All!

Up goes your head,
(As you hurry on with laughter),
So as not to let others see,
How really truly sorry,
This final day
Will Be!

Stand up like a hero,
(and straighten up that tie),
and accept your due reward,
For twelve short years of pleasure
Which you could
Well Afford!

For the time has come
Which you've dreaded,
The very last good-byes,
And you dare not tarry,
To think of deeds
Passed By!

For to manhood you are wedded,
A child no longer be!
And never more should cry,
So out comes the handkerchief,
To wipe some dirt from
Your Eye!

You make a hurried excuse,
(as you grasp your schoolmates arm),
That you must really fly,
To greet waiting relatives,
Who are standing
Close By!

This day was filled with glory,
The thing you've waited for,
The memory of a part of time,
Which will remain with you forever,
As something
Very Fine!

ADMINISTRATION

Many a student and stranger who came strolling into the office were greeted with a friendly hello from our school secretary, Miss Betty Grove. She is kept busy signing passes, making announcements, collecting money, and answering the telephone--just to mention a few of her various duties. She has obtained her clerk-teacher license and has done an excellent job during her sixteen years here. Her hobby is fishing; her most used expression is "High School, principal's office."

Seeing that the students receive the proper education, and making and enforcing the school policies, are all important duties of the school board. Among the many outstanding accomplishments of the school board this year has been their work on the re-organization act, which deals with our local school problem. We, the students, appreciate their dedicated effort. The members are: HARRIS BONTRAGER has served on the school board one term. He is president of the school board. Mr. Bontrager is the proprietor of Bontrager's Drug Store. DAN MARKLEY is now serving his first term. He is secretary of the school board. Mr. Markley is proprietor of the Markley Appliance Store. ## MONTPELIER HIGH SCHOOL CONCERT BAND NOEL LEWIS, DIRECTOR

Our school is proud of the Senior Band! The size and sound of the band has increased both in quality and quantity with the addition of several new members. Under the direction of Mr. Noel Lewis, they proudly displayed their talents at the Bluffton Street Fair, the State Fair, the Legion Jamboree parade, and marched during half times of ball games to add color to the games and spirit to the team and fans.

Ably leading the band this year in place of the familiar majorette was Bucky Buckmaster, the new drum major. He was assisted by the five twirlers, who led the band with a sprightly step at each performance.

The twirlers presented their Christmas routine while the band played HERE COMES SANTA CLAUSE. We are proud of them, and since they are underclassmen we know they will be the best with some experience.

"THE CAMPBELLS' ARE COMING"

A full house was regarded with an evening of laughs and chuckles when the Senior Class of 1960 presented the annual class play, "The Campbells are Coming," October 16, 1959. The play moved rapidly from one hilarious situation to another centering about the Brannigan family, living at their summer cabin in the Ozarks, while their new home was being completed. A play within a play came about when Ma Brannigan, at the suggestion of Dick and Betty, decided to teach a lesson to the conceited upstart, Kaye, by living the role of ignorant hillbillies. (Montpelier Herald) The cast was Ma Brannigan, Betty Gordon; Catalpa Tapp, Janet Allen; Betty Brannigan, Jeannine Johnson; Dick Brannigan, Dean Garrett; Bildad Tapp, Dave Foy; Cyrus Scudder, Philip Stoltz; Jeffrey Scudder, Danny Horrom; Kaye Brannigan, Jeannine Schmidt; Kingston Campbell, Wade Carnes; and Mrs. Augusta Campbell, Nancy Hornbaker. The play was directed by Mrs. Guy Kershner.

"THE NUTT FAMILY"

The Junior Class of 1959, under the direction of Miss Jeanette Rea, presented a three-act farce, "The Nutt Family," April 24, 1959. The play took place at Crestdale. The home was formerly used by Dr. See as a sanitarium for people who suffered from nervous disorders. Miss Helene Shelton bought the home and moved in, but she became restless and decided to go to Europe. A real estate agent allowed Dr. Nutt and his family to move in for a week. This created complications which provided the audience with an evening of laughs from the beginning of the play until the final curtain. CAST: Dr. Phineas Nutt, Gary White; Meta Nutt, Janet Trant; Ima Nutt, Beverly Weatherholt; Wall Nutt, Dean Garrett; Orestus, Wade Carnes; Sylvia Gaylord, Betty Burchard; Cerise, Janet Allen; Bea Wise, Jeannine Schmidt; Helene Shelton, Dianne Black; Larry Smart, David Foy; Vivian Tepper, Betty Gordon; Charlotte Neal, Sandy Slentz; and Lila, Mary Ann Johnson.

Pacers Down Rollers In See-Saw Game

Foul Shooting Decides 52-45 Victory

Coach Houk's Pacers added their fourth victory to the local tallies with a win when they defeated the Roll Red Rollers on their own floor Friday evening, November 28, to the tune of 52-45.

Although the local five were hitting a frigid 21% from the field for 18 of 73 attempts from the field, Roll managed to score with 15 in one of the games with .316 percentage. The Rollers had a lead after the first half, but the Pacers came back to score 22 points in the second half to come away with a score of 52-45.

Neither team had a lead during the first half, but the Rollers had a lead at the end of the first half. The Rollers won the next game, Oak Hill, by a score of 52-43.

In the last game, the Pacers came back to win the game, 52-45, over the Rollers. On Saturday afternoon, Van Buren, who was over Montpelier by a score of 52-41, won over the Rollers.

A third Rollers gave another win to the Rollers when they led 17 halves to 16 in the first half. The Rollers and led 34-31 as the final shot went up on the final shot.

The Pacers were awarded into a last quarter rally that warmed the nets for 21 points, making the 11 point lead the marksmen quite insufficient for the Rollers. The final count of 52-45 was added substantially by Mike Ray with 15 tallies to his credit. Steve Schwarzkopf and Ruble also shot in two figures, 12 and 13, respectively. Glancy and Sharp netted 12 points each for the opposition team.

Pacer's Down Warren In Close Game

The Pacer squad added a second victory in as many games, defeating the Blue and Gold on Friday evening, November 6, as they claimed a score of 43-40. The Pacer's downed the Warren Lightning Five in the Warren floor, in a contest marred by excessive fouling and faulty shooting by both teams.

Steve Schwarzkopf lit the scoreboard for one point on an early foul, open the way for an individual career for his individual efforts, matching his opening game performance against Lancaster. The Pacers took an early lead with the first quarter ending 16-12 for the Blue and Gold.

The second stanza was a period to the Blue and Gold, with no more than 4 points separation at any time, and was ending on the 33-31 score.

The third quarter was a period to the Blue and Gold, with no more than 4 points separation at any time, and was ending on the 33-31 score.

A 325 percentage to be desired in the way of sharpshooting from the way of sharpshooting from the local team, even considering the 25 points laid in by Schwarzkopf and the 15-point game of Dave Fay alone with D. Schwarzkopf's 10 markers for the evening. In the heat of the third quarter, the Blue and Gold scored 13 rebound. Ray doing admirable work in that department as well as in other defensive plays.

Morrison, with 15 points, and Ken Carpenter, who added 15 to the Warren side of the ledger, were outstanding for the opposition.

The Pacers are expected to add another win to the string of victories when they invade the Van Buren schoolhouse Friday evening, November 13.
